

Road Safety - Canada

Related Links:

Automobile Protection Association The APA is a non-profit auto industry watchdog. They work extensively for improved legislation, industry sales practices and automobile safety.

Canadian Council for Motor Transport Administration Standing Committee on Road Safety Research and Policies (RSRP). They coordinate federal, provincial, and territorial road safety efforts, prepare recommendations in support of road safety programs.

Centre for Research on Transportation Its goal is to improve the effectiveness and quality of decision-making and analysis applied to problems of transportation planning, management, regulation and safety.

Driver Competency Assessment They do on-road assessment of a driver's ability to operate safely, matching cognitive, attentional and psycho-motor skills with decision making behaviour for businesses to identify training needs.

Driving in Britain This website is concerned with driving in Britain, from a North American's point of view. It has very good descriptions on roundabouts.

'The Open Road' A Personal page of the experiences of a Canadian driving in Britain and the differences (Note - Traffic Circles = Roundabouts)

Traffic Safety Information Village The concept of the Village is to create a networked community of individuals, groups, businesses and organizations with a common interest in traffic safety.

Transportation Centre - Saskatchewan University Some simple pages on motoring issues for Canadians (inc Air Bags, ABS brakes and quite a lot of links/information on Child Safety Seats)