

2005 Summary

- 2005 petrol price rises left 200 hole in family budgets
- 2005 petrol price rises left 200 hole in family budgets
- AA Motoring Trust Response to Road Charging Statement
- AA Trust cautiously welcomes new focus with speed cameras
- AA Trust Response to Budget
- Car fuel tax freeze welcomed but "oil shock" still burns a hole in motorists' and business pockets
- Car owners must help fight growing number plate theft, says AA Motoring Trust
- Don't let your schoolchild pay the price of greater independence
- Don't make M25 mistakes, AA Trust tells drivers on new controlled-speed M42
- Drink-drive casualty rise is a matter of priorities
- Driving abroad offers only respite from high petrol prices
- Drop in price of petrol welcome but motorists are not out of the woods yet
- European innovation would put UK motorway roadworks among the best
- EuroRAP: Roads Getting Safer: Too Many Avoidable Deaths
- Four-pence drop in petrol price takes time to work through to pumps
- Garage air pumps fail the tyre pressure test
- High petrol price undermines interest rate cut
- Holiday Drivers Hold Their Breath as Petrol Price Breaks Through 4 a Gallon
- Improved Management and Safety Lifts UK Tunnel Standing as One in Six Fail in Europe
- Make Your Children Street-Smart for the Summer, AA Motoring Trust Urges Parents
- Mobile phone law loud and clear but drivers choose to ignore it
- Motoring Costs 2005
- Motorist Misery as UK Petrol Prices Edge Towards New High
- Motorway Speed Limits - The AA Motoring Trust's Position
- Overgrown Road Signs Endanger Drivers, Walkers and Riders
- Pace of petrol price rise slows but motorists brace for crude shock
- Parking Problems Biggest Turn-off for London Drivers
- Petrol Price Rises by Highest-ever Monthly Margin
- Petrol Prices Hit New High But Motorists Can Fight Back
- Private Landowners who use Unlicensed Wheelclampers Face Prison Next Week
- Public support for speed cameras becomes increasingly fragile
- Raise untaxed mileage allowance to help community and low-income workers, AA Trust urges Chancellor
- Static High Petrol Prices Deprive High Street Shops of Potential 120 Million
- Support drops for graduated penalties when speeding link to pedestrian injury is explained
- Surviving Automatic Number Plate Recognition \(ANPR\) - a guide for law-abiding drivers
- 'Thread Bare' - 'Wrong Air' and Worn Roads Danger
- UK drivers among most tolerant in Europe, unless faced with a dangerous driver
- Young male drivers - a danger to themselves and others at night